CARMAN
FAMILY CHART

April, 1952

1908157

In the original thoughts to develop a record of the Carman Family was not intended to go back any farther than our grandfather, Dr. Thomas Carman. However, the early investigations proved so exciting and intriguing that the decision was reached to cover the paternal great grandparents, Salisbury Carman (Anna Critchett) and maternal great grandparents, Michael Myers (Catherine).

It is desired to pay tribute to the inestimable assistance rendered by relatives, Court House, Library, newspaper, city and Town Hall employees and the valuable cooperation of Frank S. Wright without which this present record would have been impossible.

Little was known about either the Carman or the Myers families except in a general way. The discovery of a "Wood County Historical and Biographical Record" (Ref. "A") revealed considerable family history on both subjects. The great grandfather Salisbury Carman, according to available records, was born in Maryland during 1791. He married Anna Critchett (born 1791) on July 8th, 1807 in Caroline County, Maryland (17 and 16 years old resp.). A few months prior to the marriage (May 5, 1807) he opened a hat manufacturing place in Centerville, Maryland (Ref. "B"). According to the record Salisbury Carman, 1886-1952, was a hat maker and owned a large hat factory on Main St. in Centerville, Md. [Detroit, Mich.] 1952. April 10, 1808. CS 71 .C279 1952 Wright, Walter F., 1886- Carman family chart. [Detroit, Mich.] 1952. 3,11,1,3 p. 29 1/2 cm.

Great grandfather Salisbury Carman served as a private in the War of 1812 in Captain Edw. Lawson's Company, 1st Regt. Maryland Militia, from August 19, 1813 and ended September 10, 1813, evidently in the defense of Baltimore. He later moved to Philadelphia where the 1817 shows him as a "hatter" Randolph's Court, Northern Liberties. Northern Liberties was one of several outlying sections of Philadelphia composed of seven wards (1854) bounded on the North by Cobocsiak Creek; East by the Delaware River; South - by Vine St.; West - by 6th St. Salisbury is reported to have died in Philadelphia during 1819 (29 years old). Great grandmother Ann Critchett Carman according to the record married James Chiviril during 1861 and she died in Baltimore during 1866. No confirmation has been had to these dates.

There is no record uncovered to date which reveals the brothers, sisters or parents of Salisbury or Ann Critchett.

Dr. Thomas S. Carman "was eleven years old when his father died and with no property left the little family (4 small children) was scattered." Later he learned dentistry in Baltimore. He traveled through the South and East and in 1834 moved to Cleveland, Ohio. In 1836 he made a purchase of 80 acres in Sec. 8 Montgomery Twp. Wood County. Prior to this purchase he had married Eleanor Young in Baltimore, May 7, 1828. She died in Baltimore in 1834 -- no children. Subsequently in 1835, he married Elizabeth Howard by whom he had four children, two died in childhood. Elizabeth died in 1843. On October 17, 1853 he married Nancy Ann Myers by whom he had one child, Nancy Ann died in 1857. Then Dr. Carman married Nancy Ann's sister Emily Ann Myers August 25, 1859 by whom he had 12 children.

April, 1952

In the original thoughts to develop a record of the Carman Family, it was not intended to go back any farther than our grandfather, Dr. Thomas S. Carman. However, the early investigations proved so exciting and intriguing that the decision was reached to cover the paternal great grandparents, Salisbury Carman (Anna Critchett) and maternal great grandparents, Michael Myers (Catherine ).

It is desired to pay tribute to the inestimable assistance rendered by relatives, Court House, Library, newspaper, city and Town Hall employees and the valuable cooperation of Frank S. Wright without which this present record would have been impossible.

Little was known about either the Carman or the Myers families except in a general way. The discovery of a "Wood County Historical and Biographical Record" (Ref. "A") revealed considerable family history on both subjects. The great grandfather Salisbury Carman, according to available records, was born in Maryland during 1790. He married Anna Critchett (born 1791) on July 8th, 1807 in Caroline County, Maryland (17 and 16 years old resp.). A few months prior to the marriage (May 5, 1807) he opened a hat manufacturing place in Centerville, Maryland (Ref. "B"). According to the record Salisbury later moved to Baltimore, Maryland "where he owned a large hat factory on Main St." Dr. Thomas S. Carman was born in Queen Ann County, Md. April 10, 1808.

Great grandfather Salisbury Carman served as a private in the War of 1812 in Captain Edw. Lawson's Company, Nace's Regiment Maryland Militia from August 19, 1813 and ended September 10, 1813, evidently in the defense of Baltimore. He later moved to Philadelphia where the Philadelphia City Directory of 1817 shows him as a "hatter" Randolph's Court, Northern Liberties. Northern Liberties was one of several outlying sections of Philadelphia composed of seven wards (1854) bounded on the North by Cohocksink Creek; East - by the Delaware River; South - by Vine St.; West - by 6th St. Salisbury is reported to have died in Philadelphia during 1819 (29 years old). Great grandmother Ann Critchett Carman according to the record married James Chiviril during 1851 and she died in Baltimore during 1866. No confirmation has been had to these dates.

There is no record uncovered to date which reveals the brothers, sisters or parents of Salisbury or Ann Critchett.

Dr. Thomas S. Carman "was eleven years old when his father died and with no property left the little family (4 small children) was scattered." Later he learned dentistry in Baltimore. He traveled through the South and East and in 1834 moved to Cleveland, Ohio. In 1836 he made a purchase of 80 acres in Sec. 8 Montgomery Twp., Wood County. Prior to this purchase he had married Eleanor Young in Baltimore, May 7, 1828. She died in Baltimore in 1834 -- no children. Subsequently in 1835, he married Elizabeth Howard by whom he had four children, two died in childhood. Elizabeth died in 1843. On October 17, 1853 he married Nancy Ann Myers by whom he had one child, Nancy Ann died in 1857. Then Dr. Carman married Nancy Ann's sister Emily Ann Myers August 25, 1859 by whom he had 12 children.

Dr. Carman had two brothers Lewis and James, Mary (died in childhood). James L. died in New Orleans on November 25, 1878 at 64 years (1814). Lewis was reported to have died in Texas. The research work has not uncovered the details regarding their families although inquiries are presently in circulation.

Needless to comment upon the privations and hardships experienced by the Carman family in those early days of settlement of virgin lands. It is urged that interested relation read the references indicated herein.

The Myers family experienced equal hardships. Michael and Catherine settled in Wood County (now New Rochester) in 1834 with a son and four daughters, Lucinda (b. 1825), Nancy Ann (b. 1827), Mary (b. 1829), Silas (b. 1831) and Sarah (b. 1834). He migrated from Jefferson County, Ohio, but was born in Pennsylvania (1800). Michael Myers ran a tavern at New Rochester and was postmaster from 1835 to 1865. He later sold his property and moved to Westerville (Franklin County) Ohio where he died Oct. 31, 1873 at 73 years of age. Katherine (b. 1805) died in New Rochester July 23, 1841. Other children born to them are as follows: Augusta, Cecial, Frank and Emily Ann (1838). A separate report will be developed on the Myers family.

From the research made to date and the details recorded here below it is urged that further investigations be made by the living members of the Carman family to develop details on their progenitors. This is a real challenge to the Family.

John and Abigail Carman lived in Hemel Hempstead, England during the 1500's. One son John (b. 1606 d. Hempstead L. I. 1653) arrived in this country at Roxbury, Mass. Nov. 4, 1631. His family remained in New Jersey and a Carman book record covers that family. None of that family migrated to Maryland.

There is definite evidence that one Thomas Carman was in Maryland (Ref. "B" page 49) an early settler (1714)-- that he was a witness on the sale of property Samuel Hunter and Richard Hammond at Queenstown 8/28/1713 (Ref. "B" page 113), that 2 acres were surveyed for a church in the Carman field (Ref. "B" page 210); that John Carman (private) was at the present site of Centerville 2/3/1776 (Ref. "B" page 284). Will of Rebecca Carman to James and Thomas 3/7/1740. This detail is recorded in Queen Ann County, Md.

Additional research references here below developed to aid in linking the Family to earlier dates.

There is much effort to be expended in getting the links forged in the family chain, however, the further work and expense appears to be justified. This subject from now on is in the hands of the family for their decision.

October 1952 Supplement

Since the publication of the "Carman Family Chart" during April 1952 we are happy to relate our success in locating the relatives of JAMES LAWRENCE CARMAN, one of the brothers of Dr. Thomas S. Carman. It is a pleasure to submit here below the data uncovered to date on his Family.

The search is continuing with a view of locating the survivors of the other brother, LEWIS CARMAN, who was reported to have died in Texas during 1866. The efforts of all the Carmans is solicited for the purpose of locating the descendants of LEWIS.
